

Adding 'ed' to Verbs in the Past Tense

f. The children talk to the teacher.

---

---

g. I push my sister on the swing.

---

---

h. I pour the milk on to my cornflakes.

---

---

2. Can you spot the errors in this piece of writing?

It is meant to be in the past tense but the writer has made some mistakes.
There are five mistakes to find!

The children look out of the window. What on earth was that?! A bizarre flying object was in the sky just above them. They jump up and ran towards the door, hoping to get a better view of the strange object. As they look up they realise it was glowing brightly like a star, but was moving across the sky as fast as a rocket. Was it a flying saucer? They listen carefully, they thought they could hear voices coming from the sky. The whole thing was very mysterious!