PSHE FOCUS

- Starting high school will be a new adventure for you. Have a discussion with your parents, friends or family about what you are looking forward to about starting high school and any worries that you may have. Make a list of what you are looking forward to and your worries in your remote Learning book.
- Complete English Task 1 (see English Tasks A and E on the website)
- Create a survival guide to provide tips on how to settle into your new high school. Research the high school you are going to by visiting their website.
Use the headings: getting to and from school; making new friends and meeting new teachers; finding your way around; uniform; homework; lunchtime; how to deal with problems that arise; FAQs (Frequently Asked Questions).

ARTS FOCUS

See English Task 3 (English Tasks A and E on the website) Based on what you have read about the expedition to Mount Everest, imagine you are Edmund Hillary about to embark on this journey. Write a blog or create a video diary (imagine you have the facilities!), outlining each part of your journey. Try to have a balance of both facts and emotions he would have been feeling at each point.

GEOGRAPHY

Mr Whelan and Miss Terrell have been busy liaising with your high schools. They were amazed at how many different high schools you are all going to.

- Can you plot all the different high schools in Preston on the map? Use Google Earth to help you.

- Find out if their names have changed over the years?
- Can you find an interesting fact about each one e.g. Andrew Flintoff went to Ribblesdale High School (now closed)?
