Which are adjectives?

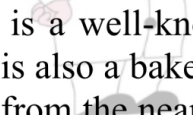

Which are nouns?

Skyler is a well-known dancer in town. Besides from being a dancer, she is also a baker and a maker of my favorite frosting, Cider!

A stranger from the nearby town heard of her. He fumes with anger, "I will make all my cakes larger than hers!" He started baking bigger cakes. A driver stopped in to buy one of his cakes. He asks, "Who baked this?"

The twins who are listening in the corner answer, "Mr. Loper!"

The driver took a bite and said, "Wow, this is my favorite." The news spread around town. The dancer is not happy. So she said, "I will make my cakes bigger than his!" She started baking and put special jelly inside the cake. The same driver stepped into the dancer's bakery. He bought a piece of cake and said, "Yum!" The news spread around town. The dancer and Mr. Loper became equally popular.
