

26.1.21

LO: To explore equality and honesty in today's world

read the story on the linked website on the remote learning page before considering the following questions.

Answer as a paragraph to answer the questions.

Is equality and honesty important today?

Where might you find inequality still present today?

What can be done about it?

Is it the same all over the world?

What about through the years? Have things changed?

