LO: To understand what a wiki is and plan content for a new wiki

After you have watched Wikis in Plain English, you are going to think about planning our own Wiki about the Tudors.

Earlier this week, you thought about what you would like to learn about the Tudors. Draw your own spider diagram to show the sections that our Wiki could be split into when giving information about the Tudors. Think about the chapters that a book about the Tudors might be split into.

For example:

What other sections might there be? What else would you like to find out about the lives of the Tudors?
