

Make a puppet of You and Joe

What would you say to Joe?

How do you think he feels when everyone is asking questions?

What could the children have done differently?

How do we make friends?